

English language requirements

For exchange students an English language qualification is not mandatory, but your sending institution should be satisfied that you are proficient in English to at least the level of Cambridge First Certificate (FCE), and preferably to the level of Cambridge Advanced Certificate. A pre-sessional language course is available if required.

To be accepted as a visiting student you must have a qualification in English Language whether your first language is English or not. You must have an IELTS (or equivalent) score of at least 6.5 overall, with no less than 6 in each component.

Accommodation

There is a wide range of accommodation for students in Loughborough, on and off the campus, and a dedicated Student Accommodation Centre will help you to arrange this. For more information go to: www.lboro.ac.uk/accommodation

Supporting you

You can expect a warm welcome to our School. Our dedicated team in the International Relations Office will look after you during your stay.

In addition to University welcome and orientation sessions there will be an induction session to help you to settle into academic life in the School.

School of Business and Economics

The School of Business and Economics welcomes exchange and visiting students from all over the world to come and study with us.

Who can study with us?

Exchange students

You can come to us as an exchange student if you are studying at one of our partner institutions.

Visiting students

You can join us as a visiting student if you are not studying at a partner institution.

You can study with us for a semester or a year. Our teaching programmes range across Business, Management, Finance, Information Management and Economics and are renowned for being designed to meet the needs of industry.

To be eligible you must have completed at least two years of study of a four-year university or college degree (or one year of a three-year degree).

You can find a full list of our partners on our webpages.

Summer schools

Undergraduate and Masters students looking for a short, intensive study option can apply to our International Summer School which focusses on international sports management.

MBA students can attend the European Summer School in Advanced Management.

Why study with us?

Here are just some of the reasons to study with the School of Business and Economics:

- We are among the top 1% of business schools in the world with 'triple accreditation' from leading bodies, AACSB, EQUIS and AMBA
- We are consistently ranked as a top-10 UK business school
- 75% of our research output is considered 'world-leading' or 'internationally relevant'
- You will gain full credit transfer to your home university
- A personal tutor and a dedicated International Relations team will ensure strong personal and academic support
- Accommodation on campus is guaranteed for students who apply before the end of July
- Loughborough is renowned for an excellent student experience and as the UK's top sporting university
- Our central location ensures easy access to London, Birmingham and other great UK cities and countryside.

What can you study?

You can choose from around 40 modules each semester from across the School's areas of expertise, to suit the requirements of your degree. You can choose from:

- Introductory topics
- Marketing and Retail
- Human Resource Management
- Management Science and Information Systems
- Accounting and Finance
- Enterprise
- Economics

It may also be possible to take a language module worth 5 ECTS as part of your study programme.

The full list of modules is available on our webpages.

Workload

The normal semester workload at Loughborough is equivalent to 30 ECTS – or 60 ECTS for one year.

Your home University must confirm the number of credits you are required to study.

If the combined percentage mark for the module is 40 or more, ECTS credit is awarded for that module.

Applying

Students coming in October (Semester 1) must apply by 15 June. Students arriving in January (Semester 2) must apply by 15 November.

Exchange students

To come as an exchange student you must be nominated by your home institution before you can apply to us.

To begin the exchange process, you should contact your Study Abroad office to find out how they select students to study abroad. If you are selected your institution will inform us and we will contact you directly with the application form.

Visiting students

To come as a visiting student you must apply on the Visiting Student application form, available to download on our webpages.

In all cases we advise you to contact your Study Abroad office as soon as possible, and we will work with them to make your application process a smooth one.
